

PRESS RELEASE

ASCO looks back on successful BrauBeviale 2019

From 12. – 14. November, 1'088 companies exhibited their products at the Nuremberg Exhibition Centre. ASCO CARBON DIOXIDE LTD took the opportunity this year to present its extensive technological know-how for CO<sub>2</sub> recovery from various exhaust gas sources.

40'000 trade visitors from all over the world visited the most important international capital goods fair for the beverage industry. Numerous visitors to the stand were given an idea of what economic and ecological CO<sub>2</sub> recovery options could look like. ASCO Managing Director Marco Pellegrino explains: "BrauBeviale 2019 was again a very important and successful trade fair for us this year. It showed once again how great the demand for complete CO<sub>2</sub> solutions is. Our CO<sub>2</sub> portfolio, with state-of-the-art CO<sub>2</sub> recovery options for breweries and beverage manufacturers, was very well received by the many trade visitors".

During the three days of the fair, very good contacts were made. "The extremely positive response from the trade fair visitors exceeded our expectations repeatedly and encouraged us to continue to invest in our innovative CO<sub>2</sub> recovery systems, which are perfectly tailored to the needs of our customers," concluded Marco Pellegrino.
